THE PARISHES OF BRANDESTON AND KETTLEBURGH

From: The Revd Deirdre West

Dear Friends

I conducted my first solo school assembly in early March at Eyke School, where I am one of the foundation governors. What an experience it was! I set off from home with a slight feeling of anxiety, clutching a basket of bits and bobs, a nail, a rock, a paper crown from a cracker, a towel, a book and an empty medicine bottle. With these items, I was going to attempt to answer the question "Who is Jesus", the theme set for the day.

Well I needn't have worried at all. In the school hall, assembling quietly and politely class by class, were 140 children and their teachers. My request for some helpers resulted in dozens of hands up, and some of the most direct looks it has been my pleasure to receive. To the question, "Well, who do you think Jesus is?" - I was inundated with ideas and most of them completely right - in fact they hardly needed me at all to unravel the obscurity of my accessories. I left having learnt a really catchy new song, the tune of which plagued me all that day and the next! I learnt that a community of young eager minds, surrounded by a strong Christian ethos which teaches and educates certainly, but which also encourages, respects, inspires and prepares children to become the people they were created to be, has much to teach US about the Christian values there ought to be in today's world.

May I take this opportunity to wish you all, a really happy and truly blessed Easter.

*He is risen
He is risen indeed, Alleluia*

With love in Christ

Deirdre

PS I have a small bar of chocolate for the first person who rings to tell me which of my bits and bobs represented which specific characteristic of Jesus.

LENT COURSE 2011

Following last years very successful Lent course it has been decided to continue in the same manner, with all seven parishes sharing in the same course. The aim is to roam around the villages, enabling an assortment of venues and times. The course will be structured informally around a short act of worship, refreshments and exploration of ‘Faith Journeys’.

By varying the time, day and time of each session it is hoped to make it as accessible to as many people as possible. So, if you can’t make all of them there is a chance you will find at least one to suit.

The course is for EVERYONE and anyone – at whatever stage of their individual journeys they are at, and it will be a great opportunity to worship, socialise, explore and learn together. So please, even if you’ve only got a passing interest, or are slightly curious do feel YOU are welcome to come if only for one or two sessions.

UNITED MOTHERING SUNDAY SERVICE AT BRANDESTON – 3rd APRIL

Family Worship for Mothering Sunday will take place in Brandeston Church starting at 11.00am on Mothering Sunday, 3rd April 2011. This will be a united service, for both the parishes of Kettleburgh and Brandeston. The theme of the service will focus on the love Mother's give their children, and the service will include music, poetry, flowers, drama and activities for all ages, following this theme. Please also note that the collection received at this service will be given to support the relief work in Japan following the recent earthquake and tsunami. Although the service is being planned especially with families in mind, absolutely everyone will be welcome to come and take part.

BRANDESTON FILM CLUB

The film club in 2011 will be held on the first Thursday of the month at 7.30 p.m. Membership is £10 which entitles you to see 12 films throughout the year.

April 7th – Tamara Drew A young newspaper writer returns to her home town in the English countryside where her childhood home is being prepped for sale. Starring Gemma Arterton.

May 5th - Dark Blue World. Charles Dance and Tara Fitzgerald star in this World War 2 story in which the friendship of two men becomes tested when they both fall for the same woman.

June 2nd - Mrs. Henderson Presents. During World War 2 Laura Henderson buys an old London theatre and opens it up as the Windmill theatre, a performance hall which goes down in history for, amongst other things, its all-nude revues. Judi Dench, Bob Hoskins and Will Young star.

ANNUAL PARISH CHURCH MEETINGS

Annual Parish Church Meetings take place for St Andrew's Church, Kettleburgh on Monday 11 April at 7.30pm in Kettleburgh Village Hall, and for All Saints Church Brandeston on Wednesday 13 April at 7.00pm in Brandeston Village Hall. These meetings are open to everyone living in the Village. Everyone is invited to come and find out what your local Church has been doing this year and to hear about the challenges it is facing. More details are given on posters around the villages, and on the two village web sites.

RA

KETTLEBURGH VILLAGE HALL

The Annual General Meeting of the Kettleburgh Village Hall Committee will be held on Tuesday 12th April 2011 in the Hall at 7.00pm.

Everyone is welcome to attend.

Liz Marzetti (Secretary)

KETTLEBURGH CHURCH SPRING CLEAN

Kettleburgh Church will be "Spring Cleaned" on Saturday 16th April, starting at 10.00am. Do, please, come along and help get the Church ready for Easter. Please bring your own dusters, dustpans, brushes and cleaning materials (you'll need to make sure you take them home with you when we've finished!), although you might get a chance to use the Church's new (or nearly new "Henry" vacuum cleaner). If you have a long handled feather duster for reaching the higher spots, do bring it along. Even if you don't visit the Church very often, your help with the Spring Clean will be immensely appreciated and you will receive a warm welcome!

PALM SUNDAY CHORAL EVENSONG

This year, Palm Sunday, which marks the beginning of Holy Week, will be on 17th April. Holy Week reaches its climax on Easter Day, when we celebrate Jesus Christ's resurrection. This year, our services on Palm Sunday in the benefice will include a special Choral Evensong at 6.30pm that evening in Kettleburgh Church. At this service we shall welcome The Archdeacon of Suffolk on her first visit to Kettleburgh Church. As well as preaching at this service, the Venerable Dr Judy Hunt will re-commission Jackie Clark of Kettleburgh and Jane Woodbury- Eggins of Easton as Elders in the Benefice. Do please come and help us welcome Judy Hunt and support Jackie and Jane on this important evening.

MARDLE – Monday 18th April at 7.30pm

Charles Brentnall will talk about “The Frozen History of Antarctica” and that will include the saving of Scott’s hut 100 years on.

£6 including a glass of wine and nibbles

KETTLEBURGH VILLAGE FETE

Yes it’s that time again when our thoughts turn to summer and the village fete. So book Saturday June 11th in your diaries, 4 – 6 pm in the gardens of The Chequers Inn Kettleburgh. The Fete is only a success because so many people volunteer, so start thinking how you can help out this year. To remind you, volunteers are needed for: Selling raffle tickets in Framlingham on a couple of occasions in the weeks before the 11th June; helping to collect donations for stalls on Wednesday 8th June; putting marquees /gazeboes up on the Friday night and taking them down on the Saturday evening; setting up on Saturday morning & helping on the stalls and games during the afternoon; final clearing up Sunday morning; looking round your house to see what you can donate and of course coming along with friends and family on the day. If you can help in any way or have any ideas please give John Bater a call on 723532 he will be pleased to hear from you.

MEL THE POSTMAN'S FINAL DELIVERY IN BRANDESTON - 3rd MARCH 2011

What a wonderful farewell from Brandeston villagers to Melvyn Crossland, who has been our chirpy postman for the last fifteen years. An impressive number of people packed into the Village Hall on the morning of 3rd March to wish Mel good luck and great happiness in his retirement

Mel was astounded to hear that villagers had contributed the sum of £900 in cash - resultant from a collection that had been made in the village over the course of just a few short weeks. Mel was presented with this sum - together with a quite brilliant Postman Pat cake and retirement card in recognition of his services to Brandeston.

Mel expressed his thanks in a very eloquent speech - "It is incredibly touching and I'd like to say a huge 'Thank You' to everyone who has been so generous. I cannot thank them enough for their support. I have always enjoyed my job and it's been a great chance to meet different people - that's what I'll miss the most." Mel said after the presentation.

We would like to take this opportunity to thank all those who supported the Village collection and especially those who gave their time to deliver and collect so many contribution letters and envelopes. Thanks also to Doug & Rosie Toenjes for their brilliant artwork on the Retirement card and to Kelly Jeffery for the superb Postman Pat cake.

BRANDESTON QUIZ

The quiz night in February was a great success. A full house at Brandeston village hall of 11 teams of 6 aiming at the first prize. A sausage supper was enjoyed by all with a big "thank you" to those helping to prepare the food and lending a hand on the night itself. A fun evening which raised £521 for village hall funds.

TIMES PAST

All Fool's Day, April 1st 1865

The Framlingham Weekly News, price 1 penny, had been in existence for six years. That Saturday, April 1st 1865, it published the following:-

'A poor man, lame and blind, in the parish of Brandeston, having had the misfortune to lose his ass, applied to a gentleman who wrote him the following –

Spink's Petition

To the Charitable and the Uncharitable, to Christians, Jews, Turks, Infidels and Heretics
'Stephen Spink of Brandeston, begs leave to state the loss he has lately sustained, in the nearest relation he had in the world – his own Ass. Too modest to dwell upon any merits of his own, begs leave to solicit your charity, on those of the deceased animal, - of Christians then, he is bold to ask, because an Ass once carried the Divine Author of their religion, of Jews, because he comes the nearest of them of any brute in the Creation in their obstinacy, of Turks, because he is the parent of their favourite mule, of Infidels and Heretics because he bearest the greatest resemblance to them in stupidity, with the truly Charitable he is sensible no arguments are wanted and that with the Uncharitable none will prevail, for the first therefore as in duty bound he will ever pray; to the latter however unbecoming to the mouth of a petitioner, begs leave to say they may kiss the mark of Stephen Spink

Lamentation

Good people all attend I pray,
And listen to my ditty,
For what poor Stephen has to say
Will sure excite your pity,

Born lame and blind, he could not pass
A Snail, so slow was he
Till mounted on his dapper ass
He flew like Mercury.

Oft has he gone when sent express
For newspaper or letter,
Within 6 hours and sometimes less,
Four miles and rather better.

Such was the speed with which he went
That he was called by most
Who by his bag their letters sent –
'The Brandeston Flying Post'.

But see him now, poor falling man
On foot and forced to crawl

As crooked, and no faster than
A snail upon the wall.

You that have legs to walk upon –
Two legs and want no more,
Pity the wretch that has but one
And set him upon four.

So shall our humble postman thrive,
So blithe his hours shall pass,
That none in Brandeston town shall live
Like Stephen and his ass.

We do not know the reason for this April 1st joke, 146 years ago, but it ties in well with the retirement of Melvyn Crossland, for fifteen years our postman.
