PARISH NEWS

JUNE 2011

THE PARISHES OF BRANDESTON AND KETTLEBURGH

Dear Friends

You may have read in the magazine last month that my electronic diary ‘crashed’ just before Easter.

It was a sobering moment to discover that the whole future was blanked out somewhere in the ether.

The experience was rather like being in a ship at sea that had suddenly lost its rudder...or worse!

A good friend sent me this email:

‘Harry,

I think it is time to retire your device.

I would recommend that you use Google Calender.

Unfortunately there will be some pain involved in re-learning its interface and quirks....but in the long run it will provide you with the assurance that your diary entries will not go astray because they are hosted in the ‘cloud’ which means that they are not stored on your computer but in Google’s fully managed, global centre infrastructure.

So it will be possible to synchronise your iPad, iPhone and PC with calendar data pulled from the google cloud.

Equally if you add a new calendar entry on your iPad or iPhone or PC it will be pushed into the cloud and then pushed out again to each device.

And it is free.’

So I tried it, and it worked. My information is now ‘in the cloud’ which much reside somewhere.

I love the idea of entering the ‘cloud’ and thought there must be a sermon in this.

And of course on June 2nd, Ascension Day, we think of another cloud ascending to Heaven, and in the person of Jesus carrying our humanity, and all its data, to the right hand of God.

It is a glorious festival, and there is a special Ascentiontide service for the Deanery in Framlingham church at 7.30p.m.

Do come, and may the cloud be with you.

With love and blessings,

Harry Edwards.

Peter has rung at Brandeston regularly for the last 60 years and we all thank him for that very significant service. He learnt to ring in 1950 when the bells were restored, after 32 years of silence, and was in the company of his father and two brothers in the village.

PALM SUNDAY IN BRANDESTON CHURCH

It has become a tradition of ours to process to church following a donkey, and so we did this year. The processional party assembled in the 'Queen' car park where we prayed and sang part of a hymn before moving off towards the church. We stopped several times and sang further verses of the hymn until the procession reached the church. The people entered the church happily but there was no way Rosie, the donkey, would go down the steps into church and be part of the service; carrots, polos, pushing – nothing would move her down! So she went home whilst we went ahead with our Palm Sunday service. Our thanks to Marian and Ellen Hutson for transporting Rosie and battling to load her up at the end.

In the procession and the service we were very pleased to welcome Paul and Marilyn Abbot, who came because it was their 40th Wedding Anniversary. They were married in Brandeston Church on 17th April 1971, 40 years to the day, and they had come to begin their celebrations with us. The couple now live in Simons Cross, Wickham Market. Marilyn was the daughter of the Queen's Head landlord at the time.

Again, we wish them every happiness and God's blessing for the future. GV

POTSFORD CARE FARM

On Monday 9th May, Potsford Care Farm in our parish on the Wickham Market Road was officially opened by our MP Dr. Daniel Poulter. First their walking tours around the farm and allotment area, followed by drinks and refreshments, which turned out to be a magnificent "hog roast" with accompaniments.

A very great deal of work has gone into this project, which has been set up to provide a happy and interesting environment for people with mental health problems, Alzheimer's and other disablements. There are horses, cows, pigs, and chickens, and there has been advice on vegetable growing by an expert in the field. It is sure to be greatly appreciated by the users.

FIT VILLAGES

Rural communities are being given the opportunity to get more active thanks to a new initiative recently launched by Suffolk Sport.

'Fit Villages' gives villages the chance to run subsidised sporting and physical activity sessions from local facilities such as village halls, community centres and recreation grounds thanks to support from national and local funding bodies.

By participating, local people are given the chance to engage with an activity programme without transport, cost, time and environmental concerns; often cited as obstructions to quality activity provision in rural areas.

Activities are determined following a simple consultation with local people and can include things like health walks, tai chi, badminton, yoga, Pilates, keep fit and Nordic walking amongst others.

NEW HOSPICE SHOP OPENS IN FRAM

St Elizabeth Hospice's newest shop was officially opened by MP Dr Dan Poulter on Friday May 13.

Dr Dan Poulter, the MP for Central Suffolk and North Ipswich, cut the ribbon at the shop, on Market Hill, Framlingham, at 11am.

Shop staff have already been overwhelmed by the response from the Framlingham community following appeals earlier this year for donations of second hand goods to sell and volunteers.

On sale will be a range of clothes and goods including designer outfits and a retro and vintage collection.

Retail sales manager Jason Rudderham said: "We would like to thank the local people who have already shown an amazing amount of support for St Elizabeth Hospice. We hope Framlingham residents will continue to support the shop by donating goods to us and coming to see what we have for sale."

This will be the 13th St Elizabeth Hospice shop to open in East Suffolk. The 12th opened in St Matthew's Street, Ipswich, in February. And more shops are due to open in Waveney, following St Elizabeth Hospice's merger with Waveney Hospice Care.

All proceeds from the shops go to the Hospice, which is an independent charity costing £6.6m a year to run. St Elizabeth Hospice services are provided free of charge.

GARDENS OPEN FOR ST ELIZABETH HOSPICE IN JUNE

A number of gardens will open to raise money for St Elizabeth Hospice in June. Seven gardens at 2, Old Rectory Cottages, Tattingstone, IP9 2NE will be on view from 11am-5pm on Sunday June 12.

Admission is £3.

Cakes and teas will be available.

Then on Wednesday June 15 the award-winning garden at Rainbows End, Humber Doucy Lane, Ipswich, IP4 3NU will be open from 2.30-5pm. Admission fee is a donation to the Hospice.

On Saturday June 18 it will be the turn of the traditional 1930's garden at 8, Princethorpe Road, Ipswich, IP3 8NY from 11am-4pm. Admission £1.

To round of the month the garden at Barnham Hall, Church Lane, Barnham, Ipswich, IP6 0PT will open from 2-6pm on Sunday June 26. Admission £3 adults, £1.50 children.

The St Elizabeth Hospice open garden season continues throughout the summer and for full details see www.stelizabethhospice.org.uk.

All proceeds help fund the charity's services and ensure they are available free of charge to people across east Suffolk.

CYCLISTS! ON YOUR BIKE FOR ST ELIZABETH HOSPICE IS BACK

Following the success of last year's inaugural On Your Bike! fundraising cycle challenge for Suffolk charity St Elizabeth Hospice, a date has been set for the 2011 event.

It will take place on Sunday, September 18, starting and finishing at the Royal Hospital School, Holbrook, near Ipswich, Suffolk, IP9 2RX.

Choose from a 75 mile challenge (9am), 50 mile circuit (9.30am) or 11.5 mile fun/family route (10am).

Last year more than 200 people took part raising thousands of pounds for the Hospice, which provides services free of charge to patients living with a progressive illness.

Registration will be available online at www.stelizabethhospice.org.uk. It costs £15 to register for the 75 or 50 mile, £5 for the 11.5 mile.

Alternatively a form can be downloaded from the website. For more information call 01473 723600 or email fundraising@stelizabethhospice.org.uk

TIMES PAST

Changes take place over the years. One that is interesting to consider is that of Brandestons All Saintes Churchyard and the Burial Ground in Mill Lane. Now both are well looked after; Brandeston Hall School maintains the Churchyard and grass verges nearby which is a great help to the village. In Mill Lane an Early Purple Orchid has been found for the first time and it is hoped that the Pyramidal Orchids will follow. All is kept well by the Tree Officer, John Garratt and his helpers.

However, this was not always so. In September 1923 Mr H.R. Lingwood made a transcription of the inscriptions on the gravestones in the Churchyard, of which he found one hundred and twenty nine. Then he wrote a letter to the Editor of the east Anglian daily Times as follows:-

Sir, Recently I spent some time in Brandeston Churchyard, and came away somewhat begrimed, for I found a large proportion of the 130 memorials so overgrown as to almost make an Army jack-knife a necessity in freeing them from the growth of many years. Ivy thickly envelopes most of the headstones, dating from 1729 to 1801. In the space South of the church nave and many stones elsewhere in the burial ground are as heavily mantled, while in some instances the stems of young trees and bushes cover portions of the inscription. To read the names and dates on all the altar-tombs, with the exception of the interesting heraldic tomb close to the North porch, it is necessary to climb the palisading and ruthlessly tear away the clinging evergreens. These stones were obviously erected to keep green the memory of former worthies (and others!) The stones themselves are all that is kept green. The inscriptions were cut to be read. Every stone in Brandeston Churchyard, from the earliest (1684) to the most recent (1910) is still decipherable, but access to many is only to be had at the expense of much toil. Who is responsible for the condition of this country churchyard? Surely its care should be one of the first duties of the P.C.C? But evidently no one cares. Many other Suffolk churchyards are in almost as neglected a state, but Brandeston is singled out as a particularly bad example.....
