

THE PARISHES OF BRANDESTON AND KETTLEBURGH

Dear Friends

“Thank you”.

I’ve found myself wanting to say thank you at various moments and to various people during the last month or so.

I’ve wanted to say thank you to everyone who made our Harvest Festivals such memorable events earlier this month, and to all those people whose donations will provide positive improvements to the lives of people in the third World; and thank you, too, for the wonderful Harvest Lunches and Suppers which so many of us enjoyed.

Thank you, also, to all who helped with the annual clean-up and tidy of Churches and Church-yards in the benefice. The spirit with which so many people took part made these occasions fun as well as achieving their purpose.

And thank you, too, for all the help that you have given to your Church throughout the last year. The Church is there for you when you need it; and it is wonderful that so many people have continued to support their Church this year, in all the ways they have.

Of course, November is the month each year when we express our eternal thankfulness for all those who served their country during time of war; we do this in our annual “Remembrance” of those who have lost their lives.

A few weeks ago, I met a Journalist who spent six months of 2008 in Afghanistan, working with 16th Air Assault Brigade, the Army Formation based in Colchester. He has now published a book describing the conditions under which our young men and women serve there. The extraordinary courage and endurance he witnessed and, as he said, the fact that, an individual serving one six month tour in Afghanistan will see as much action as a veteran who served throughout the six years of World War 2, left me pondering.

He reminded me that each of us, as citizens of this country, bears responsibility for what our servicemen and women are called upon to do. Of course, we cannot ourselves control events nor can we bring our troops home, even if that were the right thing to do.

But the obligation of “Remembrance” is not only that we give thanks for those of previous generations who died, but also to remember, constantly, those of our own generation who serve in conditions of danger and difficulty to make our world a safer and more peaceful place, and to consider what WE CAN DO to further that purpose.

This year, I believe, “Remembrance” should carry renewed significance for all of us.

With very best wishes
Robin Alderson

REMEMBRANCE 2009

We remember again this year all those who have given their lives for our freedom, those who still suffer and those who still fight. Our war memorials are full of names, those who have made the supreme sacrifice; many are local names. This year we celebrate 65 years since the D-Day landings. Everyone should be able to join in such remembrance and thankfulness; the freedom was won for each one of us, no one is exempt. These are the details of Remembrance across the Benefice:

BRANDESTON

KETTLEBURGH COFFEE MORNING AND TABLE TOP SALE

If anyone has unwanted presents, "junk in the attic", home produce or anything that would sell or be useful to someone else, bring it along and "buy" a table top (money to go to the village hall) to display and hopefully sell for yourselves. Do your Christmas shopping! Unsold goods must be taken home again as storage is impossible in the village hall.

RUBY AND HER HORSES at Brandeston Village Hall

Not to be missed! On Saturday November 22nd at 7.30pm, Neil Lanham will be telling the stories his mother, Ruby, told him of her farming life in Suffolk, from before the First World War and then through the Depression of the 1930s. Ruby's own photos will be shown on the big screen and each story will be followed by an unaccompanied song from Andrew Stannard, in his Suffolk voice.

All will make for a 'real Suffolk evening'.

Tickets are £6 [concessions £5] from the Thursday Coffee Mornings or Jacky O'Brien on 685266. Jacky O'Brien

KETTLEBURGH BREAKFAST

It's that time of year again- the Kettleburgh Breakfast is back! Yes, on Sunday November 23rd from 10.30 at Kettleburgh Village Hall, you'll have another chance to enjoy a delicious cooked breakfast, read the papers and chat with friends and neighbours.

Any offers of help in the kitchen would be much appreciated – tel: 01728 723900 Helen Kay

In aid of Kettleburgh Green Trust.

VILLAGE DANCE WITH THE FAT BAND – SATURDAY 29TH NOVEMBER

SOUTHWOLD TRIP

By popular demand, the Southwold trip is back! If you haven’t joined us before, you’re in for a treat. On Saturday, 12 December, we meet at the Brandeston Queen at 9:30 where a coach will whisk us to Southwold (with pick-ups at Kettleburgh corner and Easton) where you can enjoy the Christmas lights, market, a brisk stroll by the sea, do some shopping and still have plenty of time to fill up on seasonal goodies. Some people just find a cosy pub and settle down for a long lunch. The coach picks us up at 3:30 and the return journey is filled by a non-stop raffle. We arrive at the Queen with plenty of time to recover if you have other Christmas events planned for the evening.

Tickets cost £10 for adults, children free. Contact Pat Morgan on 685378 to book your places.

FROM THE REGISTERS

CONFIRMATION AND BAPTISM

On Sunday 27th September a number of us from around the Loes Deanery gathered in Framlingham Church to witness the Confirmation of a few people drawn from Framlingham, Saxtead, Debenham and Brandeston. We, of course, were interested in Brandeston as Carlos Reynell, who is the Director of Sport at Brandeston Hall, was to be Baptised and Confirmed by the Bishop of Dunwich.

Carlos was well supported by his parents, sister, girlfriend and quite a lot of Brandeston Hall staff both past and present, as many as could come. The Head Master at the College, Paul Hayward, had sent his good wishes.

It was a very special service beautifully presented by Framlingham Church Choir. The candidates were presented to the Bishop, taken by him to the font to renew their Baptism vows (and all were sprinkled with holy water) as Carlos was also Baptised – a great act of faith and witness. After the Bishop had laid his hands of confirmation on each candidate with prayer, they then took their first communion surrounded by their families and friends. As we sang the last hymn, the Bishop led the candidates out of the church, each carrying a lighted candle and they went forth to witness to their faith in the world where they lived and worked.

We send our love and prayers and our good wishes to Carlos; we have great respect for him, as he has made this great witness to his faith. May God bless you, Carlos, now, in school and in your future life. GV

KETTLEBURGH BAPTISM

At family service on 27th September the baptisms took place of Daniel George and Isobel Sophia Davies who live in Cambridgeshire with their parents John and Elizabeth. Daniel and Isobel are the grandchildren of Eiluned and Ron Davies of Hill Farm. It was a very happy occasion and very lively due to the many small children present. We send our love and good wishes to Daniel and Isobel, may God bless you and all your family. VU

NANCY RAWLINGS

It is with great sadness we record the death of Nancy Rawlings on the 6th October at the age of 88 and many people gathered at Brandeston Church on the 15th to say goodbye to this much loved and very gentle lady who, following the funeral, was laid to rest in the churchyard next to her husband Reg who died 10 years ago.

Nancy was born and brought up in Brandeston, the eldest of four girls, and attended Brandeston School in Mill Lane and later Robert Hitcham School in Framlingham. On leaving school she worked in Earl Soham post office and when war broke out she joined the NAAFI, being unfit from appendicitis to join the forces with her sisters. She had become engaged to Reg, an Earl Soham lad, but in 1940 he joined the Suffolk Regiment, soon being transferred to the Royal Army Medical Corps and sent to Singapore. In 1942 he was captured and put to work on the infamous Burma Railway, being subjected to much physical and mental torture which affected him for the rest of his life and Nancy must have suffered much anguish during this time, not knowing when or if she would see Reg again. His release came in June 1945 and they were married in Brandeston Church in 1947 and Nancy committed herself to caring for Reg and supporting him after all he had been through during the war.

Nancy and Reg began their married life in Brandeston but in 1953 they settled in Church Road, Kettleburgh and it wasn't too long before Nancy took on the job of village post lady for which she is fondly remembered. Roger Bishop recalls how she would arrive at the post office early every morning to sort the post on his dining room table before setting out on the post office bicycle on the 4 mile delivery round carrying letters and parcels in all kinds of weather. As Roger put it "she was never later than 10 minutes early and if she couldn't deliver a parcel because someone was out she always went back with it later in the day". When she retired, early in 1979 the Royal Mail presented her with the bicycle in a little ceremony at Kettleburgh post office. Nancy and Reg enjoyed life in Kettleburgh and were very pleased when a young family moved in next door, the children treating them as honorary grandparents.

Nancy had a straightforward faith and enjoyed going to church especially family services with children taking part. She was very supportive of the church and helped to sew the Mothers' Union banner which hangs in Brandeston church. Her final illness came suddenly and was a shock to her many friends and especially her neighbours who repaid her kindness to them by helping to care for her. It was hard for her to leave her home but she was well looked after at Foxearth nursing home where she died after only a short stay. We send our love, sympathy and our prayers to her sisters Peggy and Pam and to all her nieces and nephews, may they know the comfort of God's love at this sad time.

TREVOR DAVIES

With sadness we record the death of Trevor Davies, aged 81 years, who lived at Barking Hall Nursing Home, Needham Market, on Sunday 14th September 2008.

A service of thanksgiving, a celebration for Trevor's life, was held at Ipswich Crematorium on Friday 26th September, attended by his family and those from Brandeston who had known him. Trevor and Pauline had lived at the Gables in Mill Lane (next to the old P.O.) since 1968; sadly Pauline died a few years ago. They had two children, Zoe married to Richard with their two boys Jake and Mitchell, whilst Paul is unmarried. At the service Zoe spoke with love and affection about her father including these words "Thank you Dad for all my childhood memories, for teaching me the value of hard work, for helping me to accept my defeats and celebrate my successes, for believing in me, and for loving me for who I am"

Trevor Duval Davies 16/6/1927 – 14/9/2008

Trevor was born in Ipswich, his parents Jack and 'Nanny' lived in Princes Street. His father, in due course, was called into the RAF and posted to Malta; however Trevor won a scholarship to Ipswich High School as a boarder, aged 11, whilst his sister went to Malta. He enjoyed school and did well. After the war his parents took a pub, The Falcon, at Rushmere St Andrew. It was soon after that that he met Pauline (who was to become his wife), aged 13 and he often carried her books to Northgate School – love at first sight. Trevor became very well qualified as an Electrical Engineer at college and then was taken on by the Electricity Board; they trained him further, sent him to London and gave him responsibility to which he responded well.

Trevor and Pauline married in St Margaret's Church, Ipswich and lived at Corder Road, Ipswich, off Anglesea Road. They were very happy. Paul was born in hospital and Zoe at home but soon, after 6 years, they moved to Lingsfield in Surrey and then again to Chesterford, near Saffron Walden, with the last move in 1968 to The Gables, mill Lane, Brandeston, to a house still being built. The house was built, as others in the area, by John Tuckwell. Here began the best time in his life.

Trevor was the Managing Director of several companies all with electrical connections, two at least in Scotland specialising in transformers; a successful businessman who readily mixed with politicians and the leaders of industry. He had a house in Scotland and would often be away at weekends – the family visited him there in the summer. He could come home and lay aside the business to enjoy the family, the garden, his boating on the Deben and even the caravan, twice only as Pauline did not like it!

Trevor had been bugged from age 50 with heart attacks and later strokes, which gradually left him debilitated but he fought bravely. Few things defeated him until he had to go into Barking Hall Nursing Home, Needham Market, two years ago. As a businessman he was dedicated, fair, honest and successful; as a husband and father – loyal, loving, generous, fun and witty; in old age always uncomplaining. To Jake and Mitch, his grandsons, he was a great Grandad, interested, generous and fun. He loved Laurel and Hardy movies. He was great at DIY; he could fix anything. In fact, talking to the 'Best Man' at his wedding, I was told he still had kept going the refridgerator given to him at his wedding! Great electrician/mechanic, Trevor was a very faithful, hard-working man. In talking to Zoe he said he had 'no regrets', he had enjoyed all his career. We thank God for Trevor's life. May he rest in peace.

We send our love and sympathy to Zoe, Paul, Richard, Jake and Mitchell, with our prayers that they may know God's peace and comfort. GV

FROM THE REGISTERS

BASIL NORMAN

With sadness we record the death of Basil Norman (aged 84 years) of Chestnut Tree Farm, Friday Street, Brandeston, who died suddenly in Ipswich Hospital on Friday 22nd August 2008. Basil's wife Monica (née Branton, a Kettleburgh family) died on 18th June 2005 – since then he had lived alone at the farm. Basil and Monica had two children; Heather and Daniel, married to Sarah with their children Holly and Tom. Basil's birthday is on 21st April, he enjoyed to celebrate this being the same day as HM The Queen. Basil was a very faithful man to his family, to the countryside, the community and to his country. Basil served in the army all the last war and beyond in the Royal Hampshire Regiment, 4th Battalion, being de-mobbed in 1946. His service took him to the North African desert, the battle of Mount Casino in Italy and lastly for some time in Crete where he fought terrorists after the war ended. It was always interesting to hear him tell his war stories.

Basil was born and brought up at Hill Farm, Friday Street; moving to Chestnut Tree Farm on the death of his grandmother, the farms having been in the Norman family for at least four generations. He was a great countryman, a custodian of the farm knowing every tree and hedgerow as he worked closely with nature. How he loved his hens, the ponies and even to keep his old farm machines. He was greatly loved as a good father, grandfather and friend; good and interesting company. We thank God for Basil's life. May he rest in peace.

There will be a funeral, service of thanksgiving for Basil's life, followed by interment, at All Saints' Church, Brandeston on Thursday 4th September at 2.00pm.

We send our sympathy, love and prayers to Heather, Daniel, Sarah, Holly and Tom. God bless you and bring you comfort. GV

PAST EVENTS

BRANDESTON HARVEST HORKEY

A very jolly evening was had by 63 residents and friends of Brandeston who enjoyed the harvest supper of harvest soup, roast belly pork with roasted winter vegetables and mash potatoes followed by a selection of delicious desserts. After the meal we were entertained with traditional songs and music by Reg Reader & Friends. An enjoyable evening was had by all which raised over £300 for village hall funds. Many thanks to all the helpers on the day and to those who arrived with lovely puddings.

KETTLEBURGH HARVEST CELEBRATIONS

Our Harvest celebrations took place this year on 11th October. St Andrew's Church was beautifully decorated with seasonal flowers, fruit and produce. The service began at 5:30p.m and the light gently faded as we sang hymns and thanked God for his bountiful provision to us. The menu for the informal supper which followed in the Village Hall was a delicious leek and potato soup, jacket potatoes with cheese and salads, followed by apple pies and crumbles. Thanks to everyone who provided food, decorated the tables with flowers, or helped with the setting out of the hall and the washing up. Donations towards church funds totalled £123.50. In the week after the service all the fresh produce was taken to Mills Meadow where it was gratefully received whilst the tinned and packaged goods were given to the Ormiston Centre in Ipswich, where they will be used for families in need as the occasion arises.

KETTLEBURGH HARVEST HOP - Saturday 17th October

The Hop was a great success and the village hall was jumping to the lively music of John and Mario who provided us with a great range of music and which was much appreciated by the eighty or so who came and danced the night away.

The "Dramatic Interlude" of Kettlesomer Murders was enjoyed by all with splendid performances by the victims!

So many thanks to all who helped with the bar, the food, the raffle, the flowers and general organisation. Bringing back into use the old hinged side benches was voted a good move and helped give the event that "Village Hall" feel.

A profit was made towards the Hall Funds - final amount to be announced but we hope it will be in the region of £500.

THE CHURCH BIKE RIDE – Saturday 12 Sept

The Bike Ride is over, September has gone (where has it gone?). As Peggy Cole said, Summer has gone too quickly and Autumn has come too soon.

Money raised to date is about £600 and still coming in. This is a wonderful amount, of which half will go to the Suffolk Historic Churches Trust and half will go to our own church, All Saints, Brandeston. The final amount will be in the December mag.

Thanks once again to everyone who took part.

CHEESE & WINE EXPERIENCE – SOLD OUT

“What a fantastic evening.....” “Worth every Penny..... “

Just a couple of reviews received about the evening, held on 20th September in the Village Hall.

This event was sponsored by Hamish Johnston, who supplied delicious cheeses for tasting and Timothy Wood who offered excellent wines to compliment them. They both entertained us with their attention to detail and we have no doubt that everyone took home with them a wider knowledge of how unusual cheese & wines work so well together.

A beautiful supper was set and kindly donated by Eiluned Davies and this was followed by a super raffle and an exciting auction which included a holiday at Le Moulin in Normandy donated by David & Katie Harris, a limited edition print by Sue Scott, jewellery by Deborah Thomas and 6 tickets for the first performance of Babes in the Wood at the Seckford Theatre, donated by Eiluned Davies.

This event was not possible without the help of Maggie Meadows, Pat Peck and George Payne who worked continuously in and out of the kitchen and Mark Donsworth who was the perfect auctioneer.

It was a pleasure to hold such a special event for the Trust and we can report that just under £1800 was raised to support the continual maintenance of the green.

Thank You

Kettleburgh Harvest Celebrations

Our Harvest celebrations took place this year on 12th October. St Andrew’s Church was beautifully decorated with seasonal flowers, fruit and produce – did anyone notice the small mouse that had crept amongst the decorations in the children’s corner? The service on Sunday evening was well attended, and followed the traditional pattern where gifts of grain, bread, fruit, vegetables and dairy produce were presented as symbols of our thankfulness for God’s provision to us. We sang Harvest hymns, working up an appetite for the supper which followed in the Village Hall. The menu was soup (two varieties), jacket potatoes with cheese and a wide choice of salads and relishes, followed by not only apple pies, but also some delicious fruit based cakes and puddings. Thanks to everyone who provided food, decorated the tables with flowers, helped with the setting out of the hall and the washing up, and also those who helped to clear the hall of all its furniture and fittings, ready for the refurbishment of the floor.

ALL SAINTS DAY IN BRANDESTON CHURCH

On 1st November, Brandeston Church will welcome Sue, John and Jane Tobin as guests at our Family Worship.

John and Jane Tobin were both born in Malawi, but returned to England as children. A few years ago, they visited the land of their birth for the second time in their lives; what they saw there led them to established the “Nansambo School Fund”, a charitable fund which provides support to the school in the village where they were born.

Their visit to Brandeston on 1st November will provide an opportunity for us to hear about the Malawi, a beautiful country which is the third poorest in the world, and about the difference which the Fund is making to the lives of young people in Nansambo. RA

THANKS

Charles Freeman (Oak Farm) would like to thank all those who gave him support or encouragement on his latest fund-raising ventures. The results were as follows:
Historic Churches Bike Ride. Twenty- four churches- amount raised £223- half to Brandeston Church.
Ten kilometre run for Cancer Research UK- came in just sixteen seconds under my one hour target time! Amount raised - donations and gift aid £687:05. Donations made in my name direct to Cancer Research £125. Total £812.05

HEARING LOOP FOR BRANDESTON VILLAGE HALL

LOTTERY FUNDED

A hearing loop is to be installed in the village hall thanks to a grant from the National Lottery through its Big Lottery fund. Final approval for the grant has just been received and installation is planned for 3 November. For events where amplified sound is used, this improvement to the hall should benefit a lot of people starting, hopefully, with the film club on 13 November.

- isNEWS FROM EASTON HARRIERS

With the cooler nights and days of autumn, we are reminded that the hunting season has arrived - well almost. A chat with Adrian Robinson soon brings out the enthusiasm he and the hunt have for the coming season and for the future of Easton Harriers. We welcome Adrian, the new Huntsman, into the village with his partner Hannah and their six month old daughter Myrtle. Adrian comes to us from Hertfordshire. He has hunted the Airedale Beagles, the Aldenham Harriers and the Modbury Harriers. Hannah is from Devon with a degree in English from Exeter University. It is so good to have the fun and laughter of children back at the Kennels after several years' absence. We hope and pray that the family will be very happy in Easton.

The hounds are in good shape, twenty-five couple, and have started early morning hunting (7 am to 9 am) already. The 'hunting' is really trail hunting, where a competent rider (usually Sue List) goes across country with a bag of strong smell an hour so before the hounds are let loose. This is an exciting way to ride in the countryside, requiring much skill to keep the hounds on course. The Acting Joint Masters are Rob Haag and Lydia Harvey, both of these masters are very experienced, having hunted with the Easton Harriers for many years.

The Puppy Show held at the Kennels on 6th July - an annual event - on a wet Sunday afternoon, was a great success and a boost to the start of the season. Those people who had walked hounds brought them to be judged. The top dog hound was "Fiddler", walked by Mr and Mrs Gordon Grover, with the top bitch being "Fanfare", walked by Mr and Mrs Adam Signy. Janet Baxter and her helpers put on a great tea party enjoyed by many people - thank you.

We wish the hunt well for a good 2008/9 season.

The Opening Meet will be on 1st November 2008 at The Old Mill House, Saxtead Green, at 11.30 am. Everyone is welcome.

Good hunting!

BRANDESTON CHURCHYARD – A NEW SEAT

We are very grateful for the gift of a fine, English oak seat given in memory of the Gallienne family who lived at Brook Farm from the start of the last war. The seat has been given by Rose and Francois Blancpain, and their daughter Lizzie, who live in Switzerland, who are nieces of this older generation. There is a brass plate on the seat which bears these words: In memory, John Arthur and Freda Gallienne of Brook Farm Kettleburgh and their children Elizabeth, Jack and Collinette.

Many of us will remember Collinette who, once her parents left Brook Farm, set up riding stables near the sand pit in Kettleburgh; children were often seen riding her ponies about the lanes.

The seat is positioned at the top of the churchyard with its back to the wall, under and between the trees, about equidistant from the church notice-board and the War Memorial. We are grateful to Chris McArthur and John Garratt who have securely fixed it to the ground.

We just hope that this seat may be a place where anyone can go to relax, find peace and quiet as they look over the River Deben and beyond to the rolling meadows.
Thank you again, the Blancpain family; we hope you will come and visit Brandeston.

BRANDESTON PARISH PLAN

The Parish Plan has been completed and viewed by the Parish Council, and is now (12/10/2008) in the process of being printed. On receipt of the bound version, a copy will be distributed to each household in Brandeston. The full report is in two sections; i.e. the main document which is the one to be widely distributed, and an Appendix which contains the full data derived from the Questionnaire but which will be available centrally because of its size in the foyer of the village hall, on the Brandeston website and through the Parish Council.

CAN YOU HELP?

Does anyone have a spare Burco Boiler? I use it to cook barley for the horses, but my old one is on the blink. Hoping that someone has one in a shed!

If so, please contact Lydia Harvey at Oak Farm, Brandeston, on 684025

Last Day

Just another normal day
The sun rose in the sky
Nothing seemed unusual
On the day that I will die

Breakfast in the mess tent
Bacon eggs and bread
Just a few more hours
And I'll be lying dead

A briefing, then manoeuvres
Tanks roll on dusty track
I didn't realise at the time
They'd bring my body back

The ambush came from nowhere
The bomb the blast the roar
Then the tank exploded
My life it was no more

Someone from the army
Phoned to tell my wife
He was a fine young soldier
He bravely gave his life

Gave my life! I don't think so
Life's not a gift to give
For if my life was in my hands
I would choose to live

No time to laugh with family
No time to hold my wife
No time to say I love you
No longer have I life

I used to buy a poppy
And wear it with great pride
So this year buy one for me
And remember I have died

TIMES PAST

Just consider for a moment the truly dreadful month of October 1915 for the rural community who lived here then. To us, ninety four years later, it is unbelievable that in those thirty one days four men from our two villages failed to survive the bloodshed and killing grounds of that era: George Kerridge, Kettleburgh on Friday 1st; Alfred Durrant, Brandeston on Sunday 3rd; Walter Bilney, also Brandeston on Wednesday 13th; and Harry Page of Kettleburgh on Friday 29th. Here we concentrate on the lives of three of these men – there is not enough space for more, but perhaps, next year, the remaining story may be told.

Two of these men were only twenty two. The first, Private Walter Bilney was the eldest of four sons born to Charles and Louise Bilney (née Bickers) in 1893. From the time Walter was five, they lived at 39, The Street, Brandeston, now the home of Victor Scott and Tracy Wingfield.

Walter came from a military background as his father had served in the Reserve Force and subsequently became a soldier in the Boer War of 1899-1902. When war started in 1914, Walter joined the Royal Warwickshire Regiment, which was sent out to fight in the ill-fated Gallipoli Campaign against the Turks; this was part of the 39th Brigade and the larger 13th Division.

Walter was probably wounded during the Suvla Landing of August 6th/7th 1915, evacuated to the base hospital on the island of Lemnos, only to die two months later. He is buried in East Mudros Military Cemetery among 800 casualties of war. We have a number of photographs; inscribed on his gravestone are the words 'MUCH MISSED, MEMORY CLINGS.'

It was very difficult to find out anything about Lance Corporal Harry Page but eventually it was discovered that he was the eldest son of Samuel and Mary Page (née Aldred). Harry was born at Gisleham, a small hamlet near Kessingland. His father an illiterate fisherman died sometime between 1902 and 1909, Mary then married George Kerridge who came from Sibton. By the time war broke out, the extended family had moved to Kettleburgh. George enlisted in the Essex Regiment, Harry in the Suffolk Regiment where he served in the 9th Battalion. George was killed in the Gallipoli Campaign; his stepson, Harry died of wounds four weeks later in Flanders. He must have been an efficient soldier to have been promoted at such a young age. Buried near Ypres among nearly 10,000 other war casualties nothing more is known about him. His mother married again in 1920 and lived in Kettleburgh until her death at the age of eighty four in 1956.

These are examples of tragedies which were faced by ordinary people, the loss of a generation, the best and the bravest often never returned.

TIMES PAST

Once more, at our War Memorials 90 years after the ending of the Great War, we think of those whose lives were cut short by that 4 year tragedy and by the Second World War together with other military engagements.

Not a great deal is known about Edwin Arthur Bilney who was born at 19 Low Street, Brandeston in 1893. He was the eldest son of Arthur, gardener for 50 years at Brandeston Hall, and Mary, his wife (née Wardley). Edwin was baptised at All Saints, he attended the village school and continued to live at home until the war started.

After enlisting at Ipswich as Private 2975, 4th Battalion of the Suffolk Regiment, he was sent to France and Flanders. Sadly he died of wounds at the Clearing Hospital of the British Expeditionary Force on May 17th 1915, aged 21.

It is well nigh impossible to imagine the grief suffered by families at this time. Those who dwelt in the three cottages, 18, 19 and 20, Low Street, now the home of Peter and Sue Thurlow, experienced the death of 4 young men during those terrible years.

By contrast Horace George Walne came from a farming family that had settled at Kettleburgh Hall in 1891. After finishing his boarding school education he entered the Ipswich engineering firm of E.R. and F. Turner. Some years before the outbreak of war he joined the Suffolk yeomanry, (the Duke of York's own Royal Suffolk Hussars). After mobilisation in 1914 he was sent to Gallipoli and then Egypt.

When his time expired in April 1916 Horace returned home and after a month re-enlisted to be sent to a Cadet Battalion in Scotland. On gaining a Commission in October 1916 he was posted to France as a Second Lieutenant in the 2nd Battalion of the Suffolk Regiment.

On April 11th 1917 at Wancourt during the Battle of Arras, (the 1st Battle of the Scarpe), whilst the Battalion were assembling for an attack, the enemy opened fire, Horace was struck by a shell and killed at once. His Commanding Officer, Lieut. Col. G.C. Stubbs, wrote that he was one of the best officers, very gallant and would have been promoted to command a Company. Another officer stated that he was one of the bravest and most loveable of men, fearless and reliable. 'Shells never seemed to have the slightest effect on him and we always used to look on him as a fire-eater. He was liked by all because of his quiet, unassuming way.

Horace Walne, aged 27 is interred in the Tilloy British Cemetery, Pas de Calais. There is a memorial to him on the south chancel arch, facing west of St Andrew's Church, Kettleburgh.

We have pictures of these two soldiers resting places but if anyone plans to visit war graves please let me know. Photographs are still needed to cover some men of our villages killed in the wars.
